

Southern Union Chapter | Adventist-Laymen's Services & Industries YOUNG PROFESSIONALS SCHOLARSHIP

PURPOSE

The purpose of the ASI SU Young Professionals Scholarship is twofold:

- Mentor young adults with mission-focused, professional mindset and ethic.
- Benefit the ministry/business and assist with internship expenses.

ORGANIZATION ELIGIBILITY

1. The applicant ministry must be a member of ASI Southern Union.
2. ASI SU funds shall be used solely for internship salary/stipend for up to 6 months.
3. Preference shall be given to ministries not funded by ASI Southern Union the year prior.
4. For promotion and accountability, an approved organization must attend the next two ASI Southern Union conferences, register for a display booth, and be available for interviews in order to report the status of the internship.
5. A progress report and photos of the specified internship progress must be submitted by December 31 to projects@asisouthernunion.org.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Complete the entire application. Use additional pages as attachments if more space is needed for responses.
2. Include a complete budget of the internship. Ministry organizations not funded by ASI Southern Union in the last 3 years must also include the following documents:
 - a. The list of governing board members, addresses, and occupations
 - b. A copy of your organization's Federal Tax Exemption Certificate 501(c)(3) or comparable document
 - c. Articles of Incorporation and By-laws.
3. Email 2 high resolution photos of your project in JPEG format to projects@asisouthernunion.org.
4. Submit applications and attachments by September 30 to projects@asisouthernunion.org or mail to:

DETAILS

Please give a brief description of intern's job responsibilities.

Considering that ASI SU funding is supplementary, how do you propose to pay additional expenses for the internship?

Describe the organization/business background (years of operation, sources of income, other activities).

AGREEMENT

I understand and agree that someone from my organization must register as an exhibitor for ASI Southern Union conference the year of the grant, and the year after, to describe the need, and then give a report of the status of the project. We will also provide a progress report by December 31.
